the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Miss Brown's Recital—Miss Hattie Q. Brown, the elocutionist, will give a recital in Federation of Labor hall, on the evening of March 23.

Funeral Services—Edgar V. Storms, one of the oldest employees of the Telluride Power company, died in this city yesterday, and 35 of the officials and employees of the company came up from Provo to attend.

Social and Card Party—Reynolds Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., gave a social and card party Saturday evening, and as fully 400 tickets had been disposed of every table and seat in the hall were occupied. The evening was very pleasantly spent.

India and Africa—In the First Methodist church last evening, the service was conducted by the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the church, and in place of the sermon, addresses were made by Mrs. Amess and Miss Ferris on the work in India and Africa.

Masquerade Ball—The Modern Woodmen of America will give a masquerade ball next Wednesday evening, in Federation hall. In the afternoon the evening will be a dumb-bell exercise by Miss Marie Spitzer who won the first prize in a recent Madison Square garden contest.

Lectures Concluded—The series of lectures by Dr. George Edgar Vincent was concluded Saturday evening at Barratt hall. In the afternoon the lecturer spoke on the subject of "Children vs. Growns," and in the evening "The Larger Selfishness" was treated upon. A large and appreciative audience was present on both occasions.

G. A. R. Encampment—The committee of the G. A. R. to arrange for entertainment at the May state encampment, will meet tomorrow evening, in Odd Fellows hall. The ladies of the McKean Relief corps will give a social next Thursday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. Short, 63 Eighth East street, assisted by Mesdames Smeltzer, Schnell, Stewart, Ward and Warhurst.

Stereopticon Illustrations—The First Presbyterian church was crowded last evening, on the occasion of a stereopticon illustration of scenes in the Sunday school lessons of the past quarter, including pictures of Christ, the apostles, and disciples at various times and places. One of the views, of Christ with two children by His side, as a statue group, was perhaps as fine an ideal portrait of Christ as was ever given. Dr. Faden was the speaker.

Phares Wells Dead—Phares Wells, aged 92, died yesterday at his residence of his son, John T. Wells, 434 East South Temple street, of old age. Mr. Wells was a native of Bucks county, Pa., and a carrier by express. He crossed the plains in 1848, with the third company of pioneers, having embraced the Mormon faith. He worked for some time on the Temple. The deceased leaves a wife and five children. The funeral will be held from the Twelfth ward meetinghouse at 12 o'clock noon tomorrow.

Zion's Saving Bank and Trust Company was organized in 1872, has opened over 45,000 savings accounts, and now opens an average of more than 10 new accounts every day. We want YOUR business. Joseph F. Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.

THE C. S. MARTIN COAL CO. are filling orders promptly for all kinds of coal.

AMUSEMENTS.

Lyric—The disagreeable weather of Saturday afternoon and evening had no apparent effect on the attendance at the Lyric where the "High School Girls" held forth. The house was crowded from the orchestra to the doors. A two-act farce, the "Whirligig," by Sol Fields, was full of laughable situations centering about the adventures of two German gruffers and a Dutchman looking for investments.

The vaudeville offering was a good one and should not be missed. Every performance, Rose Gillman and Anna Frances, vocalists, and buck and wing dancers, did some clever work and were generously applauded. "Con Sport" by Billy Hart assisted by Miss Weston furnished about 15 minutes of the kind of entertainment that drives dull care away. "Domino and Pythias" from the serious to the ridiculous, by Hughes and Hazelton, was a decidedly clever bit of acting, and caused one to wonder why James Hughes is not doing something better than performing in vaudeville.

The feature of the show, however, is the starting acts of the six flying Bananas. Their work on the trapeze and the net is replete with sensational acts, interspersed with funnysims. It is not too much to say that the Bananas are alone worth the admission. A matinee was given today and there will be afternoon performances on Wednesday and Saturday. The bill goes until Saturday afternoon, when it will be succeeded by the Imperial Burlesques.

Theater—At the Theater the advance sale for the performance of "Dorcas" by the Pauline Hall Opera Co. is now going on. The engagement opens tomorrow night.

Grand—At the Grand tonight's bill will be "A Fight for Honor," a new society melo-drama.

Orpheum—The three European acts on the Orpheum's new bill, Galetti's Monkeys, Mignonette Kohn and Les Auberts, came in last night, so there will be no disappointment regarding the non arrival of the headliners this evening. The management predicts that the best yet presented.

All stake and ward clerks and historians, clerks of missions, conferences, branches, quorums, and auxiliary organizations, and others who are interested in the keeping of records of importance to all members of the Church, and to recorders particularly, will be present. THE PURE FOOD ROLL OF HONOR

"Good Housekeeping," a well known household national magazine voluntarily made a thorough examination and test of Non-Such Mince Meat, and placed it without reservation upon its roll of honor.

In the March number of Good Housekeeping, in the department of "Pure Food Assurance," we find:

"Non-Such Mince Meat, Merrill-Soule Co., Syracuse, a semi-moist condensed compound of beef, apples, spices, sugar, raisins, currants, hulled elder, and salt, without other preservatives or adulterants, no artificial coloring, produced under conditions as near to sanitary perfection as possible."

This guarantee, which could not be bought at any price, ought to satisfy the most particular housewife. The sale of one million packages a month seems to prove the statement to be true. Oyer grocer sells Non-Such. Try it, and satisfy yourself. You are the one.

Called an American disease, is cured by an American medicine, originated and prepared in the most catarrhal of American countries.

That medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

It cures radically and permanently, in that it removes the cause, cleansing the blood of scrofulous and all other impurities. It overcomes all the effects of catarrh, too, and builds up the whole system.
